STUDIOS

Anlaby Studios have created this policy to enable parents and teachers to support student learning and engagement with their Performing Arts training.

Teachers are to provide a safe learning environment for students to train at the level that is correct for the individual student.

The principal will help provide a class that is suitable for each individual student. The principal will have the final say on class timetabling, student registers and festival entries.

These decisions are based upon various elements such as:

- Age
- Ability
- Attendance
- Enthusiasm
- Cost
- Availability
- Gender
- Numbers

If there is not a class suitable for the student on the timetable, the principal may suggest private tuition or she will guide the students to a more suitable school that can cater to the students needs.

Anlaby Studios is a privately run business and therefore the above factors have to be considered for every decision. The experience of staff at Anlaby Studios should be valued and appreciated by students and parents.

If any issues arise regarding these decisions, parents should email the principal on:
contact@anlabystudios.com.

Please note: we can not discuss these matters:

- On the phone
- In person (especially during lessons or change over of classes)

All issues need to be evidence based and therefore must be in writing to the above email.

Anlaby Studios will not tolerate any mis trust between parents, students and teachers. Constant, persistent and harassing complaints and disregard to the teachers experience and decisions could result in a termination of registration.

Kind Regards,
Chloe Sweeting
Principal of Anlaby Studios
